4) Discussion and Information Items

a) College Re-Design Designs

Hetty Yelland

Hetty gave an update on the designs, discussion occurred on the Meta-major placement of CTE courses, Lisa suggested CTE courses such as ADJ and Addiction Studies be duplicated to show within the “discipline” as well as in the “industry” section. Matt Trengrove explained that the illustration is geared for student use only and not to be used as the college structure. ADJ and Addiction Studies appear in that discipline because the number of courses required overlap with most of the courses in that discipline. We want to make it clear and easy for students to understand.

The next step is for the facilitation team to implement on our website. A one-year coordinator position will become available soon to help with web presence.

The senate commended Hetty for the great work she has done.

b) Accreditation Council Membership

Ann Wright

Ann presented to the senate the current accreditation council membership, which states that the current co-chair serve until the next self-evaluation. The council is looking into changing the current language to one that is clear on the 3-4 year commitment when seeking faculty membership. The handbook needs revision, which is why they are coming to the senate because the term length of the membership is unusual, and we want the faculty to be clear on the length of the term, and the work associated with it.

c) Update on AP 4021 Modification

Jennifer Moorhouse

Jennifer gave an update on the modification of AP 4021. The language was streamlined and now shows the four possible outcomes of program evaluation process to perform critical review. Once the at-risk program is identified and the process is initiated, the request will be presented to academic affairs and academic senate. If either of both parties are in disagreement, a Program Evaluation Committee will be convened, that does not mean the program will go through revitalization, the Program Evaluation Committee will do a review of the program. The body that does not recommend continuation will send their reasoning and evidence to the committee. Their initial review will determine if the process goes further.

The team working on the update will bring back this item to senate for first reading at its next meeting.

d) Update on Academic Calendar/Finals Week Schedule

Cheryl O'Donnell

Cheryl gave an update on the public comment that was given by herself and Jason Hough at College Planning Council. We received an email from Dr. Hsieh requesting that Lisa and Cheryl meet with Dr. Hsieh and Dr. Wilkinson, Ann Wright was included. Ann brought a proposal along with Academic Calendars since 2002, we suggested starting finals the Friday before to keep us within the time frame of hours, discussion and was left on a good note. Dr. Wilkinson will send out a communication with their decision, we hope it will be a good outcome.
