

Hartnell College
Foster & kinship Care Education Program Present:

Specialized Care Training Focusing on Teen Issues

Attention Foster Parents and Relative of Near-Kin Givers:

The following training series has been designed for homes that care for teens or are currently thinking of caring for foster teens in the future. This complete training series will fulfill the needed hours for the specialized care stipend- if you have already completed TEAM or ROOTS training. It is the needs of the child that determine eligibility for the Specialized Care Rate. All trainings may be taken as an individual class or as a series. Upon completion of all four classes a certificate will be awarded.

Topics will include:

Behavioral Health Issues - October 20, 2010

This will include acting out, depression, grief and loss, sexualized behavior and more.

Inside the Teenage Brain - October 27, 2010

Understand some of the biological reasons why teenagers act the way they do.

Education/ IEP's - November 3, 2010

The education issues of children in foster care, AB490

LGBQI - November 10, 2010

Issues of the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgendered, Questioning Teen and care giving them
