

Walking, Talking, and Squawking

Presented by: Maryanne Rehberg, LCSW

Training will include:

- Helping caretakers and child welfare professionals identify behaviors/traits on the social, emotional, cognitive and physical domains of child development so that you know when a child is seemingly developmentally on-target or not.
- Participants will learn how to use developmental milestones and warning signs to do a brief developmental assessment that highlights strength and deficit areas and determine whether services/referrals are in order.

Tuesday, November 2, 2010

6pm-9pm

Training will be at the Quadrangle in "The Blue Room" located on the bottom floor near room 112. 1000 S. Main Street, Salinas, Ca 93901
