HARTNELL COLLEGE

Financial Aid & Scholarships

Scholarship Program

A single application places students in consideration for various scholarships.
Students may be awarded more than one scholarship.

2012-2013 Hartnell College Scholarship program

Hartnell College offers a variety of scholarships for new, continuing, and transfer students. Most scholarships are funded through generous contributions to the Hartnell College Foundation. These funds are awarded to selected Hartnell College students who show academic interest, financial need, scholastic achievement, a desire to succeed, and community or campus involvement.

A single application places students in consideration for the various scholarships that are available through the Hartnell College Scholarship Office, located in CALL 121. Students may receive more than one scholarship.

Awards normally range from $500 - $2,500

Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for Hartnell College scholarships, applicants must be enrolled in a minimum of 9 units at Hartnell and maintain a 2.7 grade point average or better during the awarded 2012-2013 academic year.

*Nursing & Agriculture scholarships may have higher eligibility requirements.

Application Procedure

Applicants must submit the following documents, either typed or printed in black or blue ink with their name on each document, to the Hartnell College Scholarship Office by December 16, 2011.

Application:

The Hartnell College scholarship application is available online at www.hartnell.edu/financial_aid/scholarships

Personal Statement: A one-page statement that includes the following:

- * Applicant's name.
- * Statement or discussion of future personal and academic goals.
- * Explanation of applicant's financial need, including any special circumstances.

See the Hartnell scholarship website at www.hartnell.edu/financial_aid/scholarships for Essay Tips!

Letter of recommendation: One letter of recommendation from an individual who is familiar with the applicant's academic progress and future goals, such as a teacher or counselor.

Transcript: Hartnell transcripts will be obtained by the Financial Aid & Scholarship Office. Applicants do not need to include a copy.

Selection of Recipients

Hartnell College Scholarship recipients are normally selected by Hartnell College faculty members or the Hartnell College Foundation Scholarship Committee. After Fall 2011 grades are posted, eligible applications will be reviewed by the scholarship committee.

Recipient Status

Hartnell College Scholarship applications will be reviewed by the selection committee in Spring 2012 semester, primarily, and awarded for Fall 2012. Eligibility criteria also will be confirmed at this time. Applicants will be notified by mail of their status.

Payment of Scholarships

Scholarship checks will be mailed to recipients in the beginning of the Fall 2012 semester after the following is reviewed:

- Receipt of a Thank You letter written by the recipient to the donor of the scholarship.
- Verification of enrollment.
- Student has met eligibility criteria.
 - enroll in at least 9 units
 - maintain a 2.7 GPA or better

Transfer Students Only! If you later decide that you will not be attending the college or university indicated on your application, please notify the
