How to Cite Information Using Chicago Style Format

The bibliography should appear as the last page of your research paper. It should be titled, "Bibliography." The entire list should be single-spaced and in alphabetical order by the last name of each author. If the author’s name is unknown, alphabetize by the title, ignoring any initial The, A, or An. There is a five space indentation after the first line of each citation.

PRINT RESOURCES

Books

Encyclopedia Articles

If the author is not given, begin with the title of the article.

Magazines, Journals and Newspapers

INTERVIEWS

Interview in person

Interview in print

---

INTERNET & MULTIMEDIA

World Wide Web sites

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Author</th>
<th>“Title of page.”</th>
<th>Project site or homepage.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Sponsoring institution. Date of posting/revision. URL (Date of access).</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

If the Web site does not have a date of publication, then indicate this with the initials “n.d.”

Professional site

Online CQ Researcher

Subscription service magazine article

Subscription service newspaper article

Galenet

netLibrary eBook

Video recording

---

Don’t forget to indent after the first line of each citation.

More examples can be found at www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/home.html

If you have any questions, please ask a librarian for help!