

EOPS ORIENTATION QUIZ

1. Extended Opportunity Programs & Services is also referred to as (the acronym): _____

What are the services EOPS offers?

- a. You are able to receive a book credit and EOPS grant
- b. Priority registration, and Transfer fee waivers
- c. Counseling, workshops, scholarships, transfer services
- d. All of the above

2. Cooperative Agencies Resources for Education is also referred to as (the acronym): _____

What are the services CARE offers?

- a. Parking permit or Bus pass
- b. Meal voucher and CARE grant
- c. All EOPS services
- d. All of the above

3. As one of the EOPS student responsibilities, student contacts are very important. What is the purpose for the three contacts every semester?

1st Contact _____ 2nd Contact _____ 3rd Contact _____

4. Book credits are available (choose best answer):

- a. Anytime in the semester
- b. Beginning one week before Fall and Spring semesters
- c. Only when students are told by the EOPS office

5. There are 5 major requirements to be eligible for EOPS, name two requirements:

1) _____

2) _____

6. Name at least two conditions for Satisfactory Academic Progress that Financial Aid requires in order to continue receiving aid?

1) _____

2) _____

7. When is Priority Registration available for EOPS students to use? (choose best answer)

- a. 3 weeks before the semester
- b. 1 day before the general college registration dates
- c. One week before the semester begins

8. What are the time or unit limits for EOPS/CARE students to continue in the program?

- a. 70 degree applicable units or six consecutive semesters
- b. Other university or college courses may be included in the overall unit count
- c. High unit majors may have an exception to the limits
- d. All of the above

Orientation completed: In-person Orientation Presenter: _____ Date: _____
Website version Date: _____

I verify that I completed the EOPS orientation to the best of my ability.

Student Signature _____ Date _____

Counselor Signature _____ Date _____