

Calling all the Young Actors!!! Come Join The Western Stage at Hartnell College!

- JR. Theater is a Creative Dramatics program that is offered to ages 5 – 8. The two-week session focuses on the creative imagination and its enactment through improvisation.
- YOU*Theater Camp gives actors ages 9 - 16 a very intense and quick introduction to musical theatre techniques.

Both programs end with a show & tell at Western Stage's All-Company Meeting on June 27th, where the 2009 Season's actors and technicians gather together for the first time.

▪ Plays-the-Thing (PtT) is a process oriented program that teaches aspects of auditioning, rehearsal, technical production, and performance while exploring improvisation and playwriting. PtT rehearses 9 – 12 noon.

▪ YCPresents (YCP) is a production oriented program that focuses on vocal production, singing, stage movement & dance, and technical theater skills. YCP rehearses 1 – 5pm.

Not So Grimm Tales

 In 2009 both of these programs will be combined and will work together on adapting German Folktales (not by the Grimm Brothers!) for the stage. All actors will work together to learn playwriting and basic acting techniques in the morning. More advanced actors will continue on in the afternoon for more intense work on performance and technical skills.

PtT actors will meet from 9 – 12noon, Tuesdays through Saturdays.

YCP actors will meet from 9 – 12noon AND 1-5, Tuesdays through Saturdays (lunch not provided).

 Placement in either PtT or YCP will be determined through auditions.

Performances are August 8th
(12pm and 2pm)
& August 9th (2pm)
