COMMUNICATION STUDIES

PROGRAM

- Associate in Arts for Transfer (A.A.-T)

DESCRIPTION

The Associate in Arts in Communication Studies for Transfer allows students to focus their major course work and required electives to meet the needs of business, interpersonal, and public communication; and to demonstrate communicative competence. A degree in Communication Studies can lead to a career (or further study) in public relations, teaching, consulting, broadcasting, law ministry, public administration or any field in which communication skills are highly valued. Upon successful completion of the Associate in Arts in Communication Studies for Transfer, a student should be able to: conceive, develop and deliver a focused, cogent, and clear presentation; explain the transactional and transformative nature of human communication; and research, organize and write a paper concerning the development, implementation, and effective use of various communication theories.
