

These courses will be amended to have a number ending in S for the courses offered in Spanish and identical courses without an S for the courses offered in English. The description of the courses offered in Spanish will so state. The courses offered in Spanish will be required to comply with CCCC guidance on courses in languages other than English and students taking the course in Spanish will have ESL corequisite.

Each pair of courses will be identical except in course description and corequisites.