SSEC Equity Statement

- We commit to provide a student-centered design of the college experience to ensure that every student receives what they need in a tailored pathway to successfully achieve their varied educational, career and personal goals.
- We will promote an anti-racism and anti-sexism agenda. We will raise awareness to the historical context of inequity and promote evaluation as well as reform of policies and practices that produce structural inequity.
- We pledge to work to correct other forms of systemic oppression against students based on race/ethnicity, gender identity and expression, sexuality, national origin, citizenship status, class, socioeconomic status, ability, language, religion, age, physical appearance, intersections of these identities, and others not yet identified.

Equity:

- refers to achieving parity in student educational outcomes, regardless of race and ethnicity, and beyond issues of access.

Equity-mindedness:

- practitioners call attention to patterns of inequity in student outcomes
- practitioners question their own assumptions, recognize stereotypes that harm student success, and continually reassess their practices

Equity Awareness:

- practitioners are aware that underperforming students have been underserved with inadequate resources that limited their success.
- practitioners are race-conscious and aware of the social and historical context of exclusionary practices in American higher education;

Equity-minded teaching and learning practices:

- Requires providing more resources and support to students who have not historically received it.
- Rather than attribute inequities in outcomes to student deficits, the focus is on interpreting inequitable outcomes as a signal that practices are not working as intended.
- Rather than focusing on “fixing” the students, the focus is on assessing and changing institutional practices, policies, culture, and routines that have produced inequitable outcomes.
- attention is focused on designing and adopting pedagogy, curriculum, language, roles, routines, and symbols that foster equity as the norm.
