WHAT MATERIALS SHOULD YOU PROVIDE TO YOUR OBSERVER PRIOR TO AN OBSERVATION?

Faculty members teaching a distance education course: CBA 14.E.3.g

- For faculty teaching distance education courses, a worksite observation shall consist of one (1) learning unit of a course, which should be roughly equivalent to the material that would be covered in one (1) week of class.
- Evaluators will be given access to all materials posted by the instructor and discussion thread posts by both the instructor and students for that learning unit
- Evaluators will have access to some documents outside of the unit including: a syllabus, lesson plan, class policies, required class activities, exam questions, and any current announcements posted for the course.
- Just as with face-to-face classes, students may be told that a faculty worksite observation is being conducted.
- The unit to be evaluated will be agreed upon by the evaluators and evaluatee prior to the evaluation taking place.
- The evaluator will have access to the course management system as a guest during the one-week period referenced above.

Faculty members teaching a face-to-face course: CBA 14.E.3.h

- For faculty teaching face-to-face courses evaluators will be given all materials including: a syllabus, lesson plan, class policies, required class activities, exam questions, and any current announcements concerning the course.
- Students may be told that a faculty worksite observation is being conducted.
- The classes to be evaluated will be agreed upon by the evaluators and evaluatee prior to the evaluation taking place.

Faculty members teaching in self-paced labs and/or academic support services: CBA 14.E.3.f

- For self-paced labs and academic support services, observations shall be made during times when the faculty member is performing academic functions working with students.
- Each observation shall be at least one hour in length, and each evaluator shall perform at least two evaluations for a total of 6 evaluations.
