

President Rodriguez has assembled a task force that is considering governance re-structuring and streamlining. Information about the current model can be found here:
<https://www.hartnell.edu/governance/>.

Please provide responses to one or more of the following items. This survey will close on _____.

1. How specifically may the participatory governance system, structures, or processes be improved to ensure greater focus on student success?

[Text box]

2. How specifically may the participatory governance system, structures, or processes be streamlined to ensure agenda items are handled efficiently and on timely basis?

[Text box]

3. What can be done to ensure clarity with respect to the relationships between and among the various structures, such as councils and committees, within any participatory governance system that might be chosen?

[Text box]

4. Please feel free to suggest other specific ways to improve participatory governance at Hartnell.

[Text box]

Thank you for your ideas. Responses will be compiled and provided to task force members."