INFORMATION/DISCUSSION/PRESENTATIONS

3. Panther Prep Update

Ariana Rodriguez
Carla Johnson

Dean Johnson acknowledged the work of the Pathways team, and shared that they had to redesign how they do the event. Ms. Rodriguez stated that they have over 3,000 students who completed applications. She acknowledged the hard work of Ms. Alejandra Carrillo and the IT Department. Counselors will create an abbreviated education plan to review with the students on the day of Panther Prep. Ms. Rodriguez stated that they will circle back with IT regarding tokens for new students. She also shared a draft of the poster, which will have a QR code added before finalized. The event will be held at all locations: Castroville Education Center (4/27/23), King City Education Center (4/28/23), Soledad Education Center (4/28/23), and Main Campus (4/29/23). Students and families who attend will receive swag.

Dr. Jalomo advised that he will reach out to administrators to sign up to volunteer and ask their staff as well. Dean Johnson stated that they only have 35 volunteers, and would like more staff and faculty support. Ms. Rodriguez stated that she would like all volunteer names solidified by April 5.

4. AB1705 Update

Dr. Milena Angelova

Dr. Angelova shared her PowerPoint presentation on AB 705. She reviewed the following information: 1) Throughput Rates, 2) Equity in Throughput Rates, 3) Course Success Rate Comparison, and 4) Course Taking Patterns. Based on the data shared by Dr. Angelova, Dr. Jalomo inquired if the first-year students are required to take an English and Math class at the same time. Dean Johnson stated that counseling faculty initially discussed and agreed to have students take both in the same semester. However, based on the data they received, counselors decided that it was in the students' best interest to have them take English in one semester and Math in the next semester (or vice versa), but they needed to take each class in the first academic year. Dr. Jalomo thanked Dr. Angelova and Dr. Ting for their hard work, and stated that their data suggests our AB 705 efforts are effective. He added that if anyone has questions about the data, please contact Dr. Angelova.

5. Office of Equity Programs Update

Gabriela Lopez

Interim Director Lopez shared the exciting work happening in her area, which includes MILE, WELI, MiCASA, UMOJA, Salinas Valley Promise, and LBGTQIA. In addition to their events, UMOJA is looking for a new faculty coordinator to work with Mr. Anderson. Salinas Valley Promise has extended the application deadline to April 10th. MiCASA has rebranded itself and will host the UndocuAlly Training on April 21. They continue to provide legal services for undocumented students. WELI will re-energize and re-boot, and will have a double cohort since they did not have a cohort this semester. MILE will also relaunch this year, and will seek volunteers for the scholarship review. They will match the award amount to the WELI program (from $2,000 to $2,500). LGBTQIA+ Support will have an online summit in April – they have 9 staff and 1 student signed up to attend. They are looking forward to a dedicated space for their group. Mr. Pullum stated that MILE and WELI might consider including non-binary identifying students.

6. Basic Needs Update

Mario Flores

Director Flores shared his PowerPoint presentation, which explained the basic needs mission. He shared that Hartnell is currently serving food to approximately 800 students and community members on a monthly basis. He is also working on a food market, snack area, food vouchers, and grocery gift cards for students who have gone through the intake process. Housing for students is in progress. A basic needs resource webpage is in the works; Director Flores hopes that faculty will include the link on their syllabi. A basic needs survey will be live on Canvas this week to obtain data on priorities and challenges that our students face.

7. SA Division Monthly Report - March

Romero Jalomo

Dr. Jalomo shared the monthly report with the council. Please review the report to be informed on the division updates. Please contact Dr. Jalomo at rjalomo@hartnell.edu if you have any questions.
