

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING SHORT-TERM/SUBSTITUTE PAPERWORK

Human Resources & Equal Employment Opportunity

- Employment Eligibility Verification (I-9): Complete all of section 1, ending with “Employee’s Signature” and “Date”. Choose the documents(s) you will show as verification of your eligibility to work in the U.S. (Review the list on the reverse side of the form—you may use either one item from list A only, or one item from list B and one from list C).
- W-4: Complete all applicable sections; Do Not leave box #5 blank! (A copy of your Social Security card is required for payroll verification of your name and Social Security Number.) Bring your card with you.
- Automatic Deposit Authorization: This form is optional. You are responsible for contacting your bank for the exact information and format required by your bank. Currently our payroll system only allows one account at one banking institution.
- Retirement Questionnaire: Fill in the blanks and mark the boxes. If you previously taught part-time and worked 60 hours or more in one pay period, you most likely contributed to STRS.
- Physician Designation: This is for work related accidents or illnesses. If you DO NOT designate a doctor, you must go to a listed Medical Panel provider for your first 30 days of treatment. If you DO designate a doctor, you may go to that doctor for treatment at any time—without having to wait the 30 days. Your name, social security number, signature and completion of the Emergency Information are required regardless of whether or not a doctor is designated. The New Hire Pamphlet regarding work injuries is included in your packet.
- Designation of Person to Receive Warrants or Checks: Fill in the blanks. You may also wish to amend the form so that it reads, “... as the person who, after my death, or incapacitation, is entitled to receive...”
- Standards of Employment/Service Agreement: Read and initial all four paragraphs. A Drug Free Workplace pamphlet has been included in your packet for your reading. Your signature must be made in the presence of your department representative or Human Resources.
- Short-Term/Substitute Employment Agreement: Read, sign and date

Employee's Withholding Certificate

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.

Give Form W-4 to your employer.

Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

2024Step 1:
Enter
Personal Information

(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
City or town, state, and ZIP code
(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately
<input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse
<input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2:
Multiple Jobs
or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

- (a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or
- (b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or
- (c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate ☐

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):
	Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 $ _____
	Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 $ _____
	Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. You may add to this the amount of any other credits. Enter the total here	3	$ _____
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$ _____
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$ _____
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period . .	4(c)	$ _____

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2024 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2023 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2024. You had no federal income tax liability in 2023 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2023 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2024 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2025.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
3. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2024 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____
- 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
 - a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a 2a $ _____
 - b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b 2b $ _____
 - c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c 2c $ _____
- 3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc. 3 _____
- 4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld) 4 $ _____

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2024 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income 1 $ _____
- 2 Enter:

{	• $29,200 if you're married filing jointly or a qualifying surviving spouse • $21,900 if you're head of household • $14,600 if you're single or married filing separately	}	2 $ _____

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and territories for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

PURPOSE: This certificate, DE 4, is for California Personal Income Tax (PIT) withholding purposes only. The DE 4 is used to compute the amount of taxes to be withheld from your wages, by your employer, to accurately reflect your state tax withholding obligation.

Beginning January 1, 2020, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate (Form W-4) from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) will be used for federal income tax withholding only. You must file the state form Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate (DE 4) to determine the appropriate California Personal Income Tax (PIT) withholding.

If you do not provide your employer with a withholding certificate, the employer must use Single with Zero withholding allowance.

CHECK YOUR WITHHOLDING: After your DE 4 takes effect, compare the state income tax withheld with your estimated total annual tax. For state withholding, use the worksheets on this form.

EXEMPTION FROM WITHHOLDING: If you wish to claim exempt, complete the federal Form W-4 and the state DE 4. You may claim exempt from withholding California income tax if you meet both of the following conditions for exemption:

- You did not owe any federal/state income tax last year, and
- You do not expect to owe any federal/state income tax this year. The exemption is good for one year.

If you continue to qualify for the exempt filing status, a new DE 4 designating EXEMPT must be submitted by February 15 each year to continue your exemption. If you are not having federal/state income tax withheld this year but expect to have a tax liability next year, you are required to give your employer a new DE 4 by December 1.

Member Service Civil Relief Act: Under this act, as amended by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act, you may be exempt from California income tax on your wages if

- your spouse is a member of the armed forces present in California in compliance with military orders;
- you are present in California solely to be with your spouse; and
- you maintain your domicile in another state.

If you claim exemption under this act, check the box on Line 4. You may be required to provide proof of exemption upon request.

The California Employer's Guide \(DE 44\) \(PDF, 2.4 MB\) (edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de44.pdf) provides the income tax withholding tables. This publication may be found by visiting Forms and Publications (edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Taxes/Forms_and_Publications). To assist you in calculating your tax liability, please visit the Franchise Tax Board \(FTB\) (ftb.ca.gov).

If you need information on your last California Resident Income Tax Return (FTB Form 540), visit the Franchise Tax Board \(FTB\) (ftb.ca.gov).

NOTIFICATION: The burden of proof rests with the employee to show the correct California income tax withholding. Pursuant to section 4340-1(e) of Title 22, California Code of Regulations \(CCR\), the FTB or the EDD may, by special direction in writing, require an employer to submit a Form W-4 or DE 4 when such forms are necessary for the administration of the withholding tax programs.

PENALTY: You may be fined $500 if you file, with no reasonable basis, a DE 4 that results in less tax being withheld than is properly allowable. In addition, criminal penalties apply for willfully supplying false or fraudulent information or failing to supply information requiring an increase in withholding. This is provided by section 13101 of the California Unemployment Insurance Code and section 19176 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

WORKSHEETS

INSTRUCTIONS — 1 — ALLOWANCES*

When determining your withholding allowances, you must consider your personal situation:

- Do you claim allowances for dependents or blindness?
- Will you itemize your deductions?
- Do you have more than one income coming into the household?

TWO-EARNERS/MULTIPLE INCOMES: When earnings are derived from more than one source, under-withholding may occur. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, it is best to check the box "SINGLE or MARRIED (with two or more incomes)." Figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using only one DE 4 form. Claim allowances with one employer.

Do not claim the same allowances with more than one employer. Your withholding will usually be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the DE 4 filed for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed for the others.

MARRIED BUT NOT LIVING WITH YOUR SPOUSE: You may check the "Head of Household" marital status box if you meet all of the following tests:

- (1) Your spouse will not live with you at any time during the year;
- (2) You will furnish over half of the cost of maintaining a home for the entire year for yourself and your child or stepchild who qualifies as your dependent; and
- (3) You will file a separate return for the year.

HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD: To qualify, you must be unmarried or legally separated from your spouse and pay more than 50% of the costs of maintaining a home for the entire year for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. Cost of maintaining the home includes such items as rent, property insurance, property taxes, mortgage interest, repairs, utilities, and cost of food. It does not include the individual's personal expenses or any amount which represents value of services performed by a member of the household of the taxpayer.

INSTRUCTIONS — 2 — (OPTIONAL) ADDITIONAL WITHHOLDING ALLOWANCES

If you expect to itemize deductions on your California income tax return, you can claim additional withholding allowances. Use Worksheet B to determine whether your expected estimated deductions may entitle you to claim one or more additional withholding allowances. Use last year's FTB Form 540 as a model to calculate this year's withholding amounts.

Do not include deferred compensation, qualified pension payments, or flexible benefits, etc., that are deducted from your gross pay but are not taxed on this worksheet.

You may reduce the amount of tax withheld from your wages by claiming one additional withholding allowance for each $1,000, or fraction of $1,000, by which you expect your estimated deductions for the year to exceed your allowable standard deduction.

WORKSHEET B

12. Subtract line 11 from line 10. Enter difference. This is your total tax liability. 12. _____
13. Calculate the tax withheld and estimated to be withheld during 2020. Contact your employer to request the amount that will be withheld on your wages based on the marital status and number of withholding allowances you will claim for 2020. Multiply the estimated amount to be withheld by the number of pay periods left in the year. Add the total to the amount already withheld for 2020. 13. _____
14. Subtract line 13 from line 12. Enter difference. If this is less than zero, you do not need to have additional taxes withheld. 14. _____
15. Divide line 14 by the number of pay periods remaining in the year. Enter this figure on line 2 of the DE 4. 15. _____

NOTE: Your employer is not required to withhold the additional amount requested on line 2 of your DE 4. If your employer does not agree to withhold the additional amount, you may increase your withholdings as much as possible by using the "single" status with "zero" allowances. If the amount withheld still results in an underpayment of state income taxes, you may need to file quarterly estimates on Form 540-ES with the FTB to avoid a penalty.

workers' compensation: Pre-Designation of Personal Physician

If you have health insurance and are injured on the job, you have the right to be treated immediately by your personal physician (M.D., D.O), or medical group, if you notify your employer, in writing, prior to the injury.

Per Labor Code 4600, to qualify as your pre-designated, personal physician, the physician must agree in writing to treat you for a work related injury, must have previously directed your medical care, and must retain your medical history and records. The physician must be a family practitioner, general practitioner, board certified or board eligible internist, obstetrician-gynecologist, or pediatrician. Your "personal physician" may be a medical group if it is a single corporation or partnership composed of licensed doctors of medicine or osteopathy which operates an integrated multi-specialty medical group providing comprehensive medical services predominantly for non-occupational illnesses and injuries.

This is an optional form that can be used to notify your employer of your personal physician. You may choose to use another form, as long as you notify your employer in writing prior to being injured on the job, and provide written verification that your personal physician meets the above requirements and agrees to be pre-designated.

If you do not provide advance written notification, verification, and agreement of your pre-designated personal physician, you will be treated by one of the District's designated workers' compensation medical providers.

EMPLOYEE NAME: _____ LAST FOUR DIGITS OF SSN: _____

- ☐ I acknowledge receipt of this form and do not elect to pre-designate my personal physician at this time. I understand that I will receive medical treatment from my employers' medical provider. I understand that, at any time in the future, I can change my mind and provide written notification of my personal physician. I understand that the written notification must be on file prior to an industrial injury.

A Personal Physician must be willing to be pre-designated to treat you for a workers' compensation injury.
The remainder of this form is to be completed by your pre-designated physician and returned to your Employer.

PERSONAL PHYSICIAN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Per Labor Code 4600, to qualify, you must meet the criteria outlined above. You are not required to sign this form; however, if you or your designated employee does not sign it, other written documentation of the physicians' agreement to be pre-designated will be required, pursuant to Title 8, California Code of Regulations, section 9780.1(a)(3).

PERSONAL PHYSICIAN OR MEDICAL GROUP NAME: _____

- ☐ I agree to treat the above named employee in the event of an industrial accident or injury. I meet the criteria outlined above. I agree to adhere to the Administrative Director's Rules and Regulations, Section 9785, regarding the duties of the employee-designated physician.

EMPLOYEE/STUDENT SHORT-TERM/SUBSTITUTE EMPLOYMENT CONDITIONS

Human Resources & Equal Employment Opportunity

I understand that I am employed as a Short-term/Substitute employee, hired on a temporary basis to work on a specific project. I further understand that my continued employment is contingent on continued demand and/or funding. This condition of employment does not confer any future rights to or reasonable assurance of continued employment beyond this assignment.

I further understand that as a Short-term/Substitute employee at Hartnell College, I am not eligible for an employee health benefits package, including service retirement, death, health, welfare, or disability benefits.

The District retains the right to terminate this temporary assignment without any obligation to provide a statement of reasons, evidence of cause, or right to a hearing.

As a Short-term/Substitute employee, I understand that if I work more than one thousand (1,000) hours within the fiscal year of hire (July 1 to June 30), I must become a member of the Public Employees' Retirement System under Education Code §20305.

In support of the College's mission of teaching, research, and public service, Hartnell provides computing, networking, and information resources to the campus community of students, faculty, and staff.

Rights and Responsibilities

Computers and networks can provide access to resources on and off campus, as well as the ability to communicate with other users worldwide. Such open access is a privilege, and requires that individual users act responsibly. Users must respect the rights of other users, respect the integrity of the systems and related physical resources, and observe all relevant laws, regulations, and contractual obligations.

Students, employees may have rights of access to information about themselves contained in computer files, as specified in federal and state laws. Files may be subject to search under court order. In addition, system administrators may access user files as required to protect the integrity of computer systems. For example, following organizational guidelines, system administrators may access or examine files or accounts that are suspected of unauthorized use or misuse, or that have been corrupted or damaged.

Existing Legal Context

All existing laws (federal and state) and District regulations and policies apply, including not only those laws and regulations that are specific to computers and networks, but also those that may apply generally to personal conduct. Misuse of computing, networking, or information resources may result in the restriction of computing privileges. Additionally, misuse can be prosecuted under applicable statutes. Users may be held accountable for their conduct under any applicable District or campus policies, procedures, or collective bargaining agreements. Complaints alleging misuse of campus computing and network resources will be directed to those responsible for taking appropriate disciplinary action. Reproduction or distribution of copyrighted works, including, but not limited to, images, text, or software, without permission of the owner is an infringement of U.S. Copyright Law and is subject to civil damages and criminal penalties including fines and imprisonment.

Examples of Misuse

Examples of misuse include, but are not limited to, the activities in the following list.

- a) Violation of Law. Any use of Hartnell's technology resources which is in violation of federal, state or local law, or which is in aid to or furtherance of the violation of federal, state or local law, is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, the violation of copyright and other intellectual property laws.
- b) Using a computer account that you are not authorized to use. Obtaining a password for a computer account without the consent of the account owner.
- c) Using the Campus Network to gain unauthorized access to any computer systems.
- d) Knowingly performing an act which will interfere with the normal operation of computers, terminals, peripherals, or networks.
- e) Knowingly running or installing on any computer system or network, or giving to another user, a program intended to damage or to place excessive load on a computer system or network. This includes but is not limited to programs known as computer viruses, Trojan horses, and worms.
- f) Attempting to circumvent data protection schemes or uncover security loopholes.
- g) Violating terms of applicable software licensing agreements or copyright laws.
- h) Deliberately wasting computing resources.
- i) Using electronic mail to harass others.
- j) Masking the identity of an account or machine.
- k) Posting materials on publically accessible information technology resources that violate existing laws or the District's codes of conduct.
- l) Attempting to monitor or tamper with another user's electronic communications, or reading, copying, changing, or deleting another user's files or software without the explicit agreement of the owner.
- m) Commercial Activities. Hartnell's technology resources exist for educational purposes and may not be used for any commercial activities for personal financial gain, whether on behalf of individuals or for-profit entities, unless expressly authorized by Hartnell in writing.
- n) Obscene Material. Accessing, uploading, downloading, transmitting, producing, storing or viewing of any obscene material is prohibited. Obscene material includes "harmful matter" as defined by California Penal Code section 313, meaning "matter, taken as a whole, which to the average person, applying contemporary statewide standards, appeals to the prurient interest, and is matter which, taken as a whole, depicts or describes in a patently offensive way sexual conduct and which, taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value for minors."
- o) Food or Drink Prohibited. Users of Hartnell's technology resources generally accessible to the public, such as computer labs, may not possess or consume any food or drink, including water, while using such resources or within the immediate vicinity of the technology equipment.
- p) Defamatory/Harassing/Threatening Material. Creation or transmission of material which is defamatory, harassing or threatening toward another person is prohibited. Using Hartnell's technology resources to violate the legal privacy rights of any individual is also prohibited.

Activities will not be considered misuse when authorized by appropriate District officials for security or performance testing.

Additional Use Policies

The Computer Use Policy applies to use of all Hartnell Campus computing resources. Additional computer and network use policies and terms and conditions may be in place for specific electronic services offered by the campus. The Computer Use Policy applies to the use of Hartnell computers and networks for electronic communications. Users must familiarize yourselves with any of these when you agree to use these services.

Authorized Use by Minors

Hartnell students under the age of eighteen, by accepting the benefits of authorized use of the District's technology resources, acknowledge that material inappropriate for minors is accessible on the Internet; that various wrongdoing, such as identity theft, invasion of privacy and fraud, may occur on the Internet, and that their use of the Internet may therefore expose them to a variety of risks of harm to person or property. By using Hartnell's technology resources, minors and their parents accept responsibility for any and all risks thereof and acknowledge that Hartnell shall not be responsible for any harm or damage resulting from such use.

Web Pages

Hartnell College has established and presently maintains a web site which includes information regarding Hartnell's mission and purpose, courses, faculty and staff, students, and such other information and resources as the Hartnell administration determines is appropriate for inclusion (this includes a public listing of employee directory/contact information). The use of Hartnell technology resources for the creation of individual web pages, whether for official or personal purposes, shall be subject to the following requirements:

- a) Establishing Official Web Pages. The Hartnell administration may authorize a process for the creation and maintenance of official web pages by Hartnell faculty, staff, departments of the College, or student organizations. Official web pages must be approved by the designated Hartnell administrator and the content must be consistent with the general style and content of the Official Hartnell web site. The addition or modification of material to official web pages must also be approved by the designated Hartnell administrator prior to the posting of such content. Material appropriate for placement on official web pages includes administrative and academic information for specific departments or student organizations, faculty, staff or class information, or relevant reference information. Official pages must be served from officially designated server platforms that the IT personnel has authorization and access to for maintenance or content management.

- b) Establishing Personal Web Pages. The Hartnell administration may authorize the creation and maintenance of personal web pages by students, faculty or staff. Personal web pages must be for educational purposes, including research, discussion, academic development, public service and other educational uses consistent with the mission of Hartnell, and must otherwise comply with the requirements of this technology use policy. The creation of personal web pages must be authorized by the appropriate administrator and proposed content may be reviewed for compliance with this policy. In addition to the requirement that the content of personal web pages comply with this policy, any sites to which the personal web page links must be consistent with this policy.
- c) Personal Web Page Disclaimer. Personal web pages must include the following notice: "This is a personal web page. Any opinions expressed on this page are not those of Hartnell College, nor does Hartnell guarantee the accuracy or appropriateness of any information contained on this page, nor any information linked to by this page."

Email Correspondence

Email correspondence between employees of the Hartnell CCD, between employees and students, and between employees and external entities (e.g., vendors, community members) directly related to performing job duties and conducting the business of the District must take place using the official @hartnell.edu email address. Communications between enrolled students and employees must utilize the @student.hartnell.edu email address. Hartnell College students should be directed to check @student.hartnell.edu email often for communication from the college and its employees. There are exceptions to this procedure such as when employees are contacted by past students who no longer use or prospective students who have not yet received their @student.hartnell.edu email address. There can also be occasional situations when communicating with the official Hartnell email address is not possible due to computer network outages or other circumstances.

Internet and E-mail access is a privilege, not a right, and activities that may be acceptable on your private account at home may not be acceptable when using your District-authorized service.

As a public institution, the Hartnell CCD is subject to the California Public Records Act (Government Code § 6250 et seq.). The PRA requires that all communications related to public business "regardless of physical form or characteristics, including any writing, picture, sound, or symbol, whether paper, magnetic or other media" be made available to the public. This means that any member of the public can request copies of email communications that have been produced by any employee or student of the District. There are exemptions for disclosure of public records and they generally include personnel records, investigative records, drafts, and material made confidential by other state or federal statutes. Setting aside these few exemptions, the vast majority of email communications are available through a PRA request. Therefore, email communications among and between employees and/or students are not confidential or private. Placing a "confidential statement" at the end of an email does not control whether a communication is exempt from the PRA. Email communications related to HCCD business can be distributed and/or forwarded without permission of the sender.

When system problems occur, such as hardware or software failure or attacks by malicious users, the IT staff, who maintain the e-mail servers, are authorized to look at any information and any files on District computers that are necessary to solve the problems and to protect the systems and the information they contain. It is part of the system administrator's job to do this and to treat any information on the systems as confidential.

In addition to the authorized actions of the District's system administrator, e-mail can end up in the hands of computing staff if it was inaccurately addressed and if it could not be delivered.

Personal Use of Computer and Network Resources

Brief and occasional personal use of District computer and network resources is acceptable as long as it is not excessive or inappropriate, occurs during personal time (lunch or other breaks), and does not result in expense or harm to the District or otherwise violates District policy or procedure.

Appropriate Use

Hartnell extends to students, faculty, and staff the privilege to use its computers and network. When you are provided access to our campus network, you are enabled to send and receive electronic mail messages around the world, share in the exchange of ideas through electronic news groups, and use Web browsers and other Internet tools to search and find needed information.

The Internet is a very large set of connected computers, whose users make up a worldwide community. In addition to formal policies, regulations, and laws that govern your use of computers and networks, the Internet user community observes informal standards of conduct. These standards are based on common understandings of appropriate, considerate behavior that evolved in the early days of the Internet, when the internet was used mainly by an academic and highly technical community. The Internet now has a much wider variety of users, but the early codes of conduct persist, crossing boundaries of geography and government, in order to make using the Internet a positive, productive, experience. You are expected to comply with these informal standards and be a "good citizen" of the Internet.

Enforcement

Penalties may be imposed under one or more of the following: California Education Code regulations, Hartnell regulations, California law, or the laws of the United States. Minor infractions of this policy or those that appear accidental in nature are typically handled informally by electronic mail or in-person discussions. More serious infractions are handled via formal procedures. In some situations, it may be necessary to suspend account privileges to prevent ongoing misuse while the situation is under investigation. Infractions by students may result in the temporary or permanent restriction of access privileges, notification of a student's academic advisor and/or referral of the situation to the Office of Student Affairs. Those by a faculty or staff member may result in referral to the department head or administrative officer. Offenses that are in violation of local, state, or federal laws may result in the restriction of computing privileges, and will be reported to the appropriate District and law enforcement authorities.

Reporting Misuse

A user who asserts that the District or District personnel have violated this policy shall file a complaint with his or her immediate supervisor with a copy to Human Resources and a copy to the employee's bargaining unit in the event the alleged violator is an employee or Student Affairs in the event the violator is a student. The administration will contact the alleged violator to discuss the complaint. The supervisor/administrator of the complainant shall initiate an investigation if necessary and determine an appropriate remedy/resolution in consultation with the appropriate Vice President. In cases where the supervisor/administrator is part of the complaint, the complaint shall be filed with the next level of supervision for investigation and resolution and/or remedy. The complainant shall be informed in writing 1) of the initiation of the investigation, and 2) of its outcome as appropriate, with copies to the appropriate Vice President and the employee's case the correct bargaining unit. Complainants dissatisfied with the resolution/remedy have full recourse to relevant contractual protections and/or legal action
