Step 2:

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

- (a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4); or
 (b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or
 (c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld ► ☐

TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2020 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

General Instructions

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2020 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2019 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2020. You had no federal income tax liability in 2019 if (1) your total tax on line 16 on your 2019 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 18a, 18b, and 18c), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2020 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2021.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as the additional Medicare tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. Step 3 of Form W-4 provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit and Credit for Other Dependents. You can also include other tax credits in this step, such as education tax credits and the foreign tax credit. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2020 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____
- 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
 - a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column.  - b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b 2b $ _____
 - c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c 2c $ _____

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2020 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income 1 $ _____
- 2 Enter: $\left\{ \begin{array}{l} \bullet $24,800 \text{ if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er)} \\ \bullet $18,650 \text{ if you're head of household} \\ \bullet $12,400 \text{ if you're single or married filing separately} \end{array} \right\}$ 2 $ _____
- 3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-" . . . 3 $ _____

workers' compensation: Pre-Designation of Personal Physician

If you have health insurance and are injured on the job, you have the right to be treated immediately by your personal physician (M.D., D.O), or medical group, if you notify your employer, in writing, prior to the injury.

Per Labor Code 4600, to qualify as your pre-designated, personal physician, the physician must agree in writing to treat you for a work related injury, must have previously directed your medical care, and must retain your medical history and records. The physician must be a family practitioner, general practitioner, board certified or board eligible internist, obstetrician-gynecologist, or pediatrician. Your "personal physician" may be a medical group if it is a single corporation or partnership composed of licensed doctors of medicine or osteopathy which operates an integrated multi-specialty medical group providing comprehensive medical services predominantly for non-occupational illnesses and injuries.

This is an optional form that can be used to notify your employer of your personal physician. You may choose to use another form, as long as you notify your employer in writing prior to being injured on the job, and provide written verification that your personal physician meets the above requirements and agrees to be pre-designated.

If you do not provide advance written notification, verification, and agreement of your pre-designated personal physician, you will be treated by one of the District's designated workers' compensation medical providers.

References: 17 U.S. Code Sections 101 et seq., Penal Code Section 502, Cal. Const., Art. 1 Section 1, Government Code Section 3543.1(b), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rules 16, 26, 33, 34, 37, 45

In support of the College's mission of teaching, research, and public service, Hartnell provides computing, networking, and information resources to the campus community of students, faculty, and staff.

Rights and Responsibilities

Computers and networks can provide access to resources on and off campus, as well as the ability to communicate with other users worldwide. Such open access is a privilege, and requires that individual users act responsibly. Users must respect the rights of other users, respect the integrity of the systems and related physical resources, and observe all relevant laws, regulations, and contractual obligations.

Students, employees may have rights of access to information about themselves contained in computer files, as specified in federal and state laws. Files may be subject to search under court order. In addition, system administrators may access user files as required to protect the integrity of computer systems. For example, following organizational guidelines, system administrators may access or examine files or accounts that are suspected of unauthorized use or misuse, or that have been corrupted or damaged.

Existing Legal Context

All existing laws (federal and state) and District regulations and policies apply, including not only those laws and regulations that are specific to computers and networks, but also those that may apply generally to personal conduct. Misuse of computing, networking, or information resources may result in the restriction of computing privileges. Additionally, misuse can be prosecuted under applicable statutes. Users may be held accountable for their conduct under any applicable District or campus policies, procedures, or collective bargaining agreements. Complaints alleging misuse of campus computing and network resources will be directed to those responsible for taking appropriate disciplinary action. Reproduction or distribution of copyrighted works, including, but not limited to, images, text, or software, without permission of the owner is an infringement of U.S. Copyright Law and is subject to civil damages and criminal penalties including fines and imprisonment.

Examples of Misuse

Examples of misuse include, but are not limited to, the activities in the following list.

- a) Violation of Law. Any use of Hartnell's technology resources which is in violation of federal, state or local law, or which is in aid to or furtherance of the violation of federal, state or local law, is prohibited. Additional Use Policies

The Computer Use Policy applies to use of all Hartnell Campus computing resources. Additional computer and network use policies and terms and conditions may be in place for specific electronic services offered by the campus. The Computer Use Policy applies to the use of Hartnell computers and networks for electronic communications. Users must familiarize yourselves with any of these when you agree to use these services.

Authorized Use by Minors

Hartnell students under the age of eighteen, by accepting the benefits of authorized use of the District's technology resources, acknowledge that material inappropriate for minors is accessible on the Internet; that various wrongdoing, such as identity theft, invasion of privacy and fraud, may occur on the Internet, and that their use of the Internet may therefore expose them to a variety of risks of harm to person or property. By using Hartnell's technology resources, minors and their parents accept responsibility for any and all risks thereof and acknowledge that Hartnell shall not be responsible for any harm or damage resulting from such use.

Web Pages

Hartnell College has established and presently maintains a web site which includes information regarding Hartnell's mission and purpose, courses, faculty and staff, students, and such other information and resources as the Hartnell administration determines is appropriate for inclusion (this includes a public listing of employee directory/contact information). The use of Hartnell technology resources for the creation of individual web pages, whether for official or personal purposes, shall be subject to the following requirements:

- a) Establishing Official Web Pages. The Hartnell administration may authorize a process for the creation and maintenance of official web pages by Hartnell faculty, staff, departments of the College, or student organizations. Official web pages must be approved by the designated Hartnell administrator and the content must be consistent with the general style and content of the Official Hartnell web site. The addition or modification of material to official web pages must also be approved by the designated Hartnell administrator prior to the posting of such content. Material appropriate for placement on official web pages includes administrative and academic information for specific departments or student organizations, faculty, staff or class information, or relevant reference information. Official pages must be served from officially designated server platforms that the IT personnel has authorization and access to for maintenance or content management.

- b) Establishing Personal Web Pages. The Hartnell administration may authorize the creation and maintenance of personal web pages by students, faculty or staff. Personal web pages must be for educational purposes, including research, discussion, academic development, public service and other educational uses consistent with the mission of Hartnell, and must otherwise comply with the requirements of this technology use policy. The creation of personal web pages must be authorized by the appropriate administrator and proposed content may be reviewed for compliance with this policy. In addition to the requirement that the content of personal web pages comply with this policy, any sites to which the personal web page links must be consistent with this policy.
- c) Personal Web Page Disclaimer. Personal web pages must include the following notice: "This is a personal web page. Any opinions expressed on this page are not those of Hartnell College, nor does Hartnell guarantee the accuracy or appropriateness of any information contained on this page, nor any information linked to by this page."

Email Correspondence

Email correspondence between employees of the Hartnell CCD, between employees and students, and between employees and external entities (e.g., vendors, community members) directly related to performing job duties and conducting the business of the District must take place using the official @hartnell.edu email address. Communications between enrolled students and employees must utilize the @student.hartnell.edu email address. Hartnell College students should be directed to check @student.hartnell.edu email often for communication from the college and its employees. There are exceptions to this procedure such as when employees are contacted by past students who no longer use or prospective students who have not yet received their @student.hartnell.edu email address. There can also be occasional situations when communicating with the official Hartnell email address is not possible due to computer network outages or other circumstances.

Internet and E-mail access is a privilege, not a right, and activities that may be acceptable on your private account at home may not be acceptable when using your District-authorized service.

As a public institution, the Hartnell CCD is subject to the California Public Records Act (Government Code § 6250 et seq.). The PRA requires that all communications related to public business "regardless of physical form or characteristics, including any writing, picture, sound, or symbol, whether paper, magnetic or other media" be made available to the public. This means that any member of the public can request copies of email communications that have been produced by any employee or student of the District. There are exemptions for disclosure of public records and they generally include personnel records, investigative records, drafts, and material made confidential by other state or federal statutes. Setting aside these few exemptions, the vast majority of email communications are available through a PRA request. Therefore, email communications among and between employees and/or students are not confidential or private. Placing a "confidential statement" at the end of an email does not control whether a communication is exempt from the PRA. Email communications related to HCCD business can be distributed and/or forwarded without permission of the sender.

When system problems occur, such as hardware or software failure or attacks by malicious users, the IT staff, who maintain the e-mail servers, are authorized to look at any information and any files on District computers that are necessary to solve the problems and to protect the systems and the information they contain. It is part of the system administrator's job to do this and to treat any information on the systems as confidential.

In addition to the authorized actions of the District's system administrator, e-mail can end up in the hands of computing staff if it was inaccurately addressed and if it could not be delivered.

Personal Use of Computer and Network Resources

Brief and occasional personal use of District computer and network resources is acceptable as long as it is not excessive or inappropriate, occurs during personal time (lunch or other breaks), and does not result in expense or harm to the District or otherwise violates District policy or procedure.

Appropriate Use

Hartnell extends to students, faculty, and staff the privilege to use its computers and network. When you are provided access to our campus network, you are enabled to send and receive electronic mail messages around the world, share in the exchange of ideas through electronic news groups, and use Web browsers and other Internet tools to search and find needed information.

The Internet is a very large set of connected computers, whose users make up a worldwide community. In addition to formal policies, regulations, and laws that govern your use of computers and networks, the Internet user community observes informal standards of conduct. These standards are based on common understandings of appropriate, considerate behavior that evolved in the early days of the Internet, when the internet was used mainly by an academic and highly technical community. The Internet now has a much wider variety of users, but the early codes of conduct persist, crossing boundaries of geography and government, in order to make using the Internet a positive, productive, experience. You are expected to comply with these informal standards and be a "good citizen" of the Internet.

Enforcement

Penalties may be imposed under one or more of the following: California Education Code regulations, Hartnell regulations, California law, or the laws of the United States. Minor infractions of this policy or those that appear accidental in nature are typically handled informally by electronic mail or in-person discussions. More serious infractions are handled via formal procedures. In some situations, it may be necessary to suspend account privileges to prevent ongoing misuse while the situation is under investigation. Infractions by students may result in the temporary or permanent restriction of access privileges, notification of a student's academic advisor and/or referral of the situation to the Office of Student Affairs. Those by a faculty or staff member may result in referral to the department head or administrative officer. Offenses that are in violation of local, state, or federal laws may result in the restriction of computing privileges, and will be reported to the appropriate District and law enforcement authorities.

Reporting Misuse

A user who asserts that the District or District personnel have violated this policy shall file a complaint with his or her immediate supervisor with a copy to Human Resources and a copy to the employee's bargaining unit in the event the alleged violator is an employee or Student Affairs in the event the violator is a student. The administration will contact the alleged violator to discuss the complaint. The supervisor/administrator of the complainant shall initiate an investigation if necessary and determine an appropriate remedy/resolution in consultation with the appropriate Vice President. In cases where the supervisor/administrator is part of the complaint, the complaint shall be filed with the next level of supervision for investigation and resolution and/or remedy. The complainant shall be informed in writing 1) of the initiation of the investigation, and 2) of its outcome as appropriate, with copies to the appropriate Vice President and the employee's case the correct bargaining unit. Complainants dissatisfied with the resolution/remedy have full recourse to relevant contractual protections and/or legal action

Dissemination and User Acknowledgment

All users shall be provided copies of these procedures and be directed to familiarize themselves with them.

Students shall acknowledge acceptance of BP/AP 3720 electronically when accessing District computer and network resources. Employees shall acknowledge acceptance of BP/AP 3720 during the employment process.

Disclosure*No Expectation of Privacy*

The District reserves the right to monitor all use of the District network systems and computers to assure compliance with these policies. Users should be aware that they have no expectation of privacy in the use of the District network and computer resources. The District will exercise this right only for legitimate District purposes including, but not limited to, ensuring compliance with this procedure and the integrity and security of the system.

Possibility of Disclosure

Users must be aware of the possibility of unintended disclosure of communications.

Retrieval

It is possible for information entered on or transmitted via computer and communications systems to be retrieved, even if a user has deleted such information.

Public Records

The California Public Records Act (Government Code Sections 6250 et seq.) includes computer transmissions in the definition of “public record” and nonexempt communications made on the District network and computer must be disclosed if requested by a member of the public.

Litigation

Computer transmissions and electronically stored information may be discoverable in litigation.
