

PROGRAM AGENDA

Thursday, August 21, 2025 8:00 am – 3:30 pm

FACULTY

Time	Program	Location
8:00 am - 8:30 am	Meet and Greet  Light Breakfast Provided	Steinbeck Hall
8:30 am - 8:40 am	Academic Senate  Presenter: Kelly Locke	Steinbeck Hall
8:40 am - 8:50 am	RSI  Presenter: Tina Esparza	Steinbeck Hall
8:50 am – 10:20 am	Trudi Radtke is a believer in education technology, open access advocacy, and Al integration. As an Open access advocate and researcher Trudi served as the lead editor for over 100 open access textbooks and advocated for open access policies at the state, federal, and international level including crafting policy briefs for U.S. Congress and driving systemic change through equitable access policies. As a technologist, Al literacy researcher, and Al Fellow at the state chancellor's office Trudi's main research focus is the critical expansion of digital literacy and the role it plays in creating informed and empowered citizens. Their commitment to equity, accessibility, and innovation reflects both their professional achievements and personal journey as a first-generation college graduate and lifelong learner.	Steinbeck Hall
10:20 am – 10:30 am	Break
10:30 am – 11:20 am	RSI: Understanding and Implementing ACCJC Standards  Presenters: Tina Esparza and Cheryl O'Donnel	Building D, Room 279

Explaining RSI and the latest ACCIC rubric for online classes. We will review expectations for meeting RSI requirements and the timeline for implementation. This will be hosted by the DE Committee.

Zoom Retention - 411 Session

Building D, Room 277

Presenters: Paul Chen and Jacob Jun

Zoom is managed by the Chancellor's Office Tech Center on behalf of the California Community Colleges. This October the Tech Center will be implementing a retention policy for Zoom. Learn about what this means to you, how you can use the three D's to manage your recordings and what integration between box and zoom can do for you.

DSPS

Building D, Room 275

Presenter: Kevin O'Haire

Join Hartnell's Department of Supportive Programs and Services (DSPS) for a discussion on the programs and services available to our students with disabilities on campus. Topics will include student eligibility guidelines, accommodations, testing, DSPS services, program data and statistics, and UDL best practices.

Event Planning 101: A Guide to Hosting Successful Campus Events

Building D, Room 261

Presenter: Melvin Jimenez Location: Building D

Join the Office of Student Life for an interactive workshop designed to equip faculty and staff with the essential tools and best practices for planning and executing successful campus events. From reserving spaces and securing resources to promoting your event and engaging students, this session will provide step-by-step guidance to ensure a seamless event planning experience.

Evaluation for Probationary Faculty and Peers

Building D, Room 267

Presenters: Kelly Locke and Nancy Schur-Beymer

Observations, reports, student appraisals, the tenure timeline. It can seem overwhelming! This session spells out the newly approved tenure review process for both probationary faculty and their peer evaluators.

11:20 am - 11:30 am

Break

11:30 am – 12:20 pm	Breakout Sessions
	Discussion of the RSI Scorecard and Expectations	Building D, Room 27
	Presenter: Tina Esparza
	The DE Committee is in the process of developing a scorecard for ranking online classes to help faculty self-assess whether their classes meet ACCJC RSI standards. This discussion about the scorecard and expectations will be facilitated by the DEC members so that faculty can provide input and feedback.
	Let's ChatGpt About It	Building D, Room 27
	Presenter: Chelsy Pham
	Wondering what all the chatter about chatgpt is about? A hands-on experience with one of the most popular GPTs. Learn about the do's and don'ts on Al tools. Come have some fun and hear about the Learning and Innovation Center's Al Community of Practice.
	DSPS	Building D, Room 27
	Presenter: Kevin O'Haire
	Join Hartnell's Department of Supportive Programs and Services (DSPS) for a discussion on the programs and services available to our students with disabilities on campus. Topics will include student eligibility guidelines, accommodations, testing, DSPS services, program data and statistics, and UDL best practices.
	Desire Pathways: What Our Students are Trying to Tell us	Building D, Room 26
	Presenter: Jason Hough
	Explore our campuses and you will see walkways developed through constant use: not designated sidewalks, but preferred paths our students use to get from Point A to Point B. Come learn more about the phenomenon of desire pathways, its cross-application to higher education, and how this can help you reimagine your teaching methods and class structure.
	Course Dog Curriculum System Learn about the new	Building D, Room 26

curriculum system rolling out now!

Presenter: Kelly Locke

	Revising courses and programs? Fulfilling your discipline approval responsibilities? Searching for course outline and program information? This session will help get you started.
12:20 pm – 1:20 pm	Lunch and HCFA Recognition Pins	Steinbeck Hall
1:20 pm – 1:30 pm	HCFA Update	Steinbeck Hall
	Presenter: Nancy Schur-Beymer
1:30 pm – 1:40 pm	Transition to Building D
1:40 pm – 2:30 pm	Breakout Sessions
	Accessibility for Online Classes	Building D, Room 279
	Presenters: Tina Esparza and Lindsey Bertomen
	This session will sever the basics on ADA assessibility for online
	This session will cover the basics on ADA accessibility for online classes and allow faculty to learn about new tools and ask questions.
	questions.
	Google Workspace/MS365/ Cyber Security	Building D, Room 277
	Presenters: Zo Qazi and Paul Chen
	Learn about the google workspace changes, cyber threats, and upcoming office 365 updates.
	Student Mental Health	Building D, Room 275
	Presenter: Jacob Maciel
	How to work with students experiencing mental health stressors.
	Personal Finance	Building D, Room 261
	Presenter: Travis Williams
	This is a sample of the non-credit personal finance course that we now offer (BUS-660). We will cover Roth and Traditional IRAs, investments, and life insurance in this session.
	Intervention in Action: Partnering to Propel Student Success	Building D, Room 267
	Presenter: Gabriela López
	Location: Building D, Room 267
	Join us for an interactive session to explore ways to collaborate with the Student Success Specialists at El Centro. Support student retention and persistence in your course through tailored interventions in partnership with your meta major specialist. Engage in data-informed dialogue about successful outcomes thus far and explore ideas for new collaborations based on the needs of our students.

2:20 2:40
2:30 pm – 2:40 pm 2:40 pm – 3:30 pm	Break Breakout Sessions
2:40 pm – 3:30 pm	Open Lab Session	Building D, Room 279
		Building B, Room 273
	Presenter: Tina Esparza
	Get last minute help with Canvas to prep your classes! The DE
	Committee is hosting an open lab hour for you to ask questions and get tips on how to use Canvas effectively for any class; online, hybrid and web-enhanced.
	Let's talk about the F word - Fraud	Building D, Room 277
	Presenters: Lindsey Bertomen and Chelsy Pham
	Update on what the campus is doing about the bad actors and tools for faculty to report suspected activity.
	"You saw me after the sentence" - Supporting Justice Impacted Students	Building D, Room 275
	Presenter: Brenda Jones
	Humanize the topic of Justice Impacted students in higher education and introduce why this conversation matters.
	Takeaways from the Great Teachers Seminar	Building D, Room 261
	Presenter: Travis Williams
	Come hear from participants of Hartnell's first annual Great Teachers Seminar as they share their experiences and highlight new ideas they plan to bring into their teaching.
	Zumba y Más	Small Gym
	Presenter: Johnny Perez
	In this workshop, we will Zumba our square roots off along with creating
	In this workshop we will Zumba our square roots off along with creating community as we prepare to impact the lives of our students this Fall.	