AGENDA
On a motion by Trustee Healy, seconded by Trustee Montemayor, vote of 6-0, the Board approved the agenda as amended. (Absent: Freeman). The agenda was amended to include discussing summer school as it relates to employees and employee contracts in Closed Session.

SUMMER SCHOOL SESSION 2010
Peter Calvert, Financial Information Subcommittee (FIS), and Dr. Ann Wright, Resource Allocation Committee (RAC), spoke about the difficult decision to recommend to the Superintendent/President to not offer Summer School Session 2010.

At the request of RAC, the FIS was asked to examine the FTES and salary expenses, and give an opinion about the financial viability of a summer session for 2010. Mr. Calvert distributed and reviewed a memorandum from the Financial Information Subcommittee regarding FTES and Revenue and Expenses (See Appendix A). Based on their extensive examination and much discussion during a RFC meeting (a combined meeting that includes members of the Financial Information Subcommittee, Resource Allocation Committee, and other members of the college) it was their recommendation to the Superintendent/President to not schedule summer session 2010. Dr. Ann Wright stated that RAC needed to ask the FIS for their review and opinion in order for the committee to fully understand the cash flow and gravity of the situation, given that the college does not know their financial situation, i.e. would there be further cuts from the State, and would the college be paid. The committee discussed, at length, the possibility of limiting summer to continuing students only and the use of alternative funding to fully support a summer session, but found that neither were possible. As a result, two motions were made at the December 9th RAC meeting. Motion#1: To offer summer session as usual. This motion was unanimously voted down.

Motion#2: On a motion by the President of the Student Senate, seconded by the President of the Academic Senate, RAC recommends to not offer summer session 2010 with the exception of classes that Hartnell is legally obligated to offer. RAC further recommends that the district explore, if it is affordable through general funds, to offer a limited of historically high enrolled classes.

Dr. Helm clarified that the college is legally obligated to offer three classes this summer, two in Animal Health Technology and one fast track course in Administration of Justice.

Beverly Grova, Vice President, distributed proposed program offerings for summer activities supported by grants and suggested that some fee based activities may be developed. These activities could provide income for some employees and enrichment for area youth as well as some Hartnell students. Examples of a “different kind of summer” included the math academy, youth sports camps, workplace readiness, YOU*Theater Camps, and others. (See Appendix B).

Throughout the presentation, the Board asked several questions related to the FIC/RAC report and related to the proposed summer programming. At the conclusion of the Board’s questions, Trustee Donohue asked if there was anyone in the assembly that wanted to address the Board on summer session. There were none.

OPERATION CEASEFIRE

Brian Contreras, Executive Director, Second Chance, and Georgina Mendoza, Attorney, City of Salinas, were present and discussed Operation Ceasefire. Operation Ceasefire is a program that the City of Salinas has adopted to help reduce violent crimes caused by gang activity. The program has been implemented and has been successful in Chicago, Boston and most recently, Stockton. The program includes law enforcement agencies, identified members of the community, and top-ranked gang members. Operation Ceasefire is aimed at reducing gang activity, and to help gang members understand the implications of their actions and to offer opportunities to better their lives through employment and/or school.

Mr. Felice distributed and reviewed a document on construction delivery methods. Mr. Felice compared the differences between traditional design, bid and build, and the design-build methods of delivery of construction projects. Later that evening, the Board would consider adopting a resolution to approve the use of a design-build for the design and construction of the college administration building (CAB). The Board asked several questions on the obligations and efficiencies of the use of a design-build delivery method. Their questions addressed the processes involved as well as the types of projects and the advantages/disadvantages of this methodology.

Damon Felice responded no, that the college would own the data, and that once complete, he has the ability to maintain the data. The Board asked if the college could get this information from architects while renovating buildings or as new facilities are being built. Mr. Felice responded that the college does and has received this information for newer facilities.
On a motion by Trustee Healy, seconded by Trustee Gonzalez-Castro, vote of 7-0, the Board moved to approve the agreement with Symmetry Design to update campus wide space documents, putting them in AutoCAD form. The cost for these services will not exceed $10,000 and is paid from Measure H bond funds.

ACTION ITEMS

A. BUDGET REVISIONS

On a motion by Trustee Gonzalez-Castro, seconded by Trustee Montemayor, and on a roll-call vote of 7-0, the Board moved to approve budget revisions numbered 8514 to 8531.

B. SUMMER SCHOOL SESSION 2010

On a motion by Trustee Healy, seconded by Trustee Gonzalez-Castro, and on vote of 5-2 (Nay: Freeman, Montemayor), the Board moved to approve the recommendation to not offer summer session 2010. Prior to the vote, each Trustee expressed their deep regret that the state’s finances forced the Board to make a decision on summer school session 2010. Trustee Freeman stated he cannot support not offering summer school because the students need it. Also, Trustees acknowledged and thanked Peter Calvert and Ann Wright for their thorough report.

Dr. Helm clarified a statement that was in the written item for Summer School Session 2010. She referred the Board to a handout and stated that come July 1, the college would face a deficit of $3.3 million because of how the 2009-2010 budget deficit was managed. If the Board approves not to hold summer session, the deficit would be reduced to $2.3 million. Further, she stated the college would still need to deal with any new cuts from the State or decreases in other revenues such as property tax.

C. ADOPTED RESOLUTION 10:1

On a motion by Trustee Healy, seconded by Trustee Gonzalez-Castro, roll-call vote of 7-0, the Board moved to adopt Resolution 10:1, Designation of New Representatives to Various Community Colleges Joint Powers Authorities (JPAs).

D. ADOPTED RESOLUTION 10:2

Some members of the Board expressed concern over the use of a design-build and raised the question if the college would be bound to the design-build process if the Board adopted the resolution. Mr. Felice responded that it does not, but it does allow the project to move forward with this process. The Board could opt to step back to the traditional method of design, bid, and build, but the process would have to start over and it would not be timely.
Trustee Padilla-Chavez asked that the wording of the resolution be revised to be consistent with Education Code 81700. The Board agreed with the revision and the motion was amended to use language consistent with Ed Code.

On a motion by Trustee Montemayor, seconded by Trustee Gonzalez-Castro, roll-call vote of 7-0, the Board moved to adopt Resolution 10:2, as revised, to Approve the use of a Design-Build Contract for the Design and Construction of the College Administration Building (CAB) Remodel Project.

BOARD COMMUNICATION

Trustee Montemayor shared a letter and plaque he received from Governor Schwarzenegger for his effort on the homeowner’s project held at Hartnell College back in June.

Trustee DePauw stated that she is impressed with all of the work the college has done and that it’s incredible to read what the employees have given up and that all should be proud.

Trustee Gonzalez-Castro reported that The Western Stage Council is planning its next Gala and that they are expanding the Council and are recruiting new members. She thanked Jackie Cruz-Ortega and Beverly Grova for their fundraising efforts. She spoke briefly about the Spring Festival and encouraged all to participate.

Trustee Padilla-Chavez thanked everyone for a great meeting and looks forward to the next four years.
Trustee Healy thanked Trustee Gonzalez-Castro for attending the Sunrise House Board Meeting as his alternate. He expressed his delight in the new Board members and welcomed Dr. Flannigan and Mr. Stephens to the college. Also, he thanked Mr. Calvert and Dr. Wright for their presentation. In closing, he expressed his appreciation to Dr. Christensen and the orchestra for their Winter Concert performance. Both he and his nine-year-old daughter enjoyed the evening.

Trustee Freeman expressed that he is troubled that he was not informed of the installation of cameras in classrooms and demanded to know who authorized the installation and why he was not informed. He stated that he asked that this discussion be placed on the agenda, but it was not. Trustee Donohue expressed her apologies, but believed the matter was put to rest based on a conversation they had and asked that the item be placed on the February agenda.

Dr. Helm, first reminded Mr. Freeman that she was the only employee who reported directly to the Board and thus, she is the one responsible and then stated that a policy and procedure is currently under development through the Shared Governance Process and she would report on its status at the next meeting. She stated that she had a lengthy conversation with Trustee Freeman about this matter some time ago and had sent a college-wide email on the same topic. In addition, she noted that the cameras were installed and removed, about a month later. She further noted that there is no indication that any law was violated, by the installation of silent video surveillance cameras.

ADJOURNMENT

On a motion by Trustee Healy, seconded by Trustee Padilla-Chavez, and unanimously carried, the Board moved to adjourn the meeting at 8:58 p.m.

NEXT MEETING

Regular Board Meeting on February 2, 2010, 5:00 p.m., CAB-112, Hartnell College Board Room.

MEMO TO:  Hartnell Community College Board of Trustees

FROM:  Financial Information Subcommittee

DATE:  January 19, 2010

RE:  Summer FTES Revenue and Expenses

In November the Financial Information Subcommittee (FIS) was asked by the Resource Allocation Committee (RAC) to review financial data from the summer 2009 session. We were asked to examine FTES and salary expenses, and give an opinion about the financial viability of a summer session for 2010.

The FIS estimated that the salary and variable expenses for the '09 summer session were $1,010,000, and that revenue from FTES was $3,500,000, with net revenue of $2,490,000. To directly respond to the request from the RAC, it would appear that it is financially advantageous to the District to offer a summer session for 2010. The FIS felt, however, that it needed to bring three significant extra-accounting factors to the attention of the RAC, any one of which could influence the ability of the District to cover the costs of a summer session.

1. At this time any cash flow projections past January, 2010, must be considered tentative. The FIS estimates that a viable cash flow projection for June, July, and August of next year cannot be guaranteed until March, 2010, if then.

2. One of the reasons for this tentative reporting situation is that the District has no real sense of the size and effects of any expected mid-year cuts from the Chancellor's office. Although there is a $1,200,000 mid-year cut built into the current budget in anticipation of such cuts from the Legislature, the news from Sacramento is growing more and more grim by the day, and the reaction of the Legislature is unknowable at best and unfathomable at worst. Larger cuts in January will undoubtedly mean a more restricted cash flow at the end of the '09-'10 budget year as well as at the beginning of the '10-'11 budget year, just when funds would be required to pay for a summer session.

3. A second reason for the uncertainty in any cash flow projections is the moving target which is the apportionment date. This arises when the Legislature, in an effort to better control its own cash flow, delays payment of apportionment monies to districts. Already this year, two significant dates have been moved, further tightening the District's cash flow. A significant delay at the end of this year's budget cycle would negatively impact the ease with which the District could meet its payroll for summer session instructors. The following table shows the current best estimate for receipt of apportionment monies for the remainder of the 2009-2010 fiscal year and for July 2010, which is actually in the 2010-2011 fiscal year.
Additionally, the Legislature has already reduced the Full Time Equivalent Student (FTES) reimbursement cap from 7500 to 6800. The revenue from the summer ’09 session was made up from almost the exact number of FTES generated as was cut by the Legislature. This means that the revenue of $3,500,000 would not be generated in summer ’10, leading to a loss of $1,010,000, assuming equivalent enrollment year over year.

Recapping the actions taken by the District in the 2009 – 2010 year in order to bring the budget into balance:

- Estimated shortfall: $4,900,000
- Direct operations savings: $1,600,000
- Redistribution of reserves (one-time): 1,600,000
- Employee concessions (one year): 1,700,000
- 2009 – 2010 Budget savings: $4,900,000

Since the original report from the FIS was prepared in November, several other concerns have been considered by the FIS and are herewith communicated to the Board.

1. The District has already had to borrow cash at 0.9% interest in the form of a Tax Revenue Anticipation Note (TRAN). The current TRAN balance of $3,000,000 needs to be repaid by March, 2010, further eroding cash flow with no direct positive value to the District or its academic programs. Although, through careful stewardship of District cash resources, it appears that cash flow is sufficient to carry through to the end of the current year, it seems likely at this time that an additional TRAN may be required in June. Interest rates are currently rising, and there is no way of knowing what rate we will pay, among other reasons because there is no way of knowing what the rating of the State of California will be at that time. This has a direct effect on the rates that the District must pay. It is worth noting that a TRAN has a very short payback period – 12 months – so that it is not to be considered a source of revenue or funding, but rather a cash flow management tool.

2. As Adjustable Rate Mortgages (ARM) are being reset, it seems probable that there will be an increase in defaults and foreclosures in Monterey County. As home and property values decline, or at a minimum remain at their current low values, property taxes will decrease in the County. These factors combined make it probable that the District’s share of property taxes will continue to decrease over the next several years. The Monterey County Tax Collector has stated that he expects property tax revenues to decline significantly in 2010, and that the net effect on property tax revenues may be a decline of as much as 25%.

3. Projections for the 2010-2011 fiscal year will be more difficult than ever to forecast. One significant factor will be whether the Legislature will have a budget bill passed in time for an accurate District budget to be in hand for the next year. The recent history of the Legislature's schedule makes for a dubious reading at best, and a disaster for budget officers throughout the State at worst.

4. Governor Schwarzenegger's recent statements to the contrary, serious observers of the Legislature predict that it is unlikely that higher education funding in California will survive intact in the next budget cycle, especially if such funding is linked to corrections funding.

It should also be noted that eliminating the summer session has the potential of cushioning further fiscal shocks to the District in the 2010-2011 year, because this action would eliminate the cash requirements of the estimated $1,010,000. If, as is certainly possible, the State delays passing a budget bill, further delays apportionment payments, and lowers the FTES cap once more, this cash which might have been spent might be required for use during the fall and spring semesters. It allows the FIS to more closely consider the budget year as September to June, rather than having to plan for a July to June year.

The FIS presented its findings and analysis at the December 9 RAC, FIS, and Cabinet (RFC) meeting. After substantial discussion among RFC members, it was agreed that the RAC recommend to the President/Superintendent that she recommend to the Board that a summer 2010 session not be offered.
California’s Credit Cut by S&P Amid Budget Deficit - January 19, 2010

Jan. 13 (Bloomberg) -- California’s credit rating on $64 billion of general obligation bonds was cut by Standard & Poor’s today as the most-populous U.S. state faces renewed strains over a $20 billion budget deficit.

Gabriel Petek, a San Francisco-based S&P analyst, said the rating was lowered one level to A-, the seventh-highest investment grade. He said the company has a negative outlook on California debt, a sign its standing may decline further. The rating company also cut $11.2 billion of other state debt, including that backed by lease payments.

California already had the lowest rating of any U.S. state as the national recession depressed tax revenue. The imbalance has increased the state’s borrowing costs and prompted Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger to seek about $7 billion of aid from the federal government.

S&P’s cut brings its rating on California closer to that of Moody’s Investors Service and Fitch Ratings. Moody’s rates the state Baal and Fitch at BBB.

The extra yield investors are demanding on the state’s 10- year bonds over AAA-rated municipal securities rose to 1.31 percentage points yesterday from a spread of 1.06 points four months ago, according to Bloomberg fair market value index data.

A taxable California bond maturing in 2039 traded today for as little as 97.90 cents on the dollar, to yield 7.73 percent. That’s down from 98.67 cents yesterday, when the yield was 7.66 percent.

Schwarzenegger’s plan to erase the deficit was denounced by Democrats who control both chambers of the Legislature, a signal that another prolonged battle in the statehouse could worsen California’s cash flow, echoing last year.

Controller John Chiang in July resorted to IOUs to pay bills to maintain enough cash for payments given the highest priority under the law, including debt service. Budget officials have already said they may delay paying some of the state’s bills in March because the cash balance will dip below the $2.5 billion cushion they like to maintain.

Schwarzenegger’s $82.9 billion proposed budget would cut spending by $8.5 billion. He is counting on the federal government to provide $7 billion that Schwarzenegger said California is owed for health care, education and jail cells for illegal immigrants. The budget also siphons $1 billion from gasoline tax revenue meant for local governments.

California is the largest borrower in the municipal bond market, issuing $36 billion of debt last year. Lockyer warned last week that California may need to delay or shut down thousands of infrastructure projects if budget problems prevent it from raising additional funds from investors.

“It’s going to make last year’s budget cycle look not so bad,” said George Strickland, who manages $4.5 billion in municipal debt for Thornburg Investment Management in Santa Fe, New Mexico. He hasn’t been buying California’s state debt.

Standard & Poor’s was less aggressive than its rivals in cutting California’s credit rating as the state’s fiscal woes worsened last year, cutting only once, in February, as the Legislature and Schwarzenegger were at an impasse.

Moody’s lowered its assessment of California’s debt in March and again in July, leaving it just three steps above so- called junk, or non-investment grade, according to the California Treasurer’s office. Fitch reduced the state three times last year and now rates it two steps above junk, according to the Treasurer.

This classification shall be adopted and established at range 34 of the classified salary schedule. The employee who holds this position shall provide leadership in the department as well as technical assistance.

Only classified employees who currently hold positions in Admissions and Records on the main campus shall be eligible to apply for this one new position, a promotional opportunity.

Enrollment Services Coordinator:

This classification shall be adopted and established at range 31 of the classified salary schedule. The job description for this classification shall be negotiated between CSEA and the District no later than April 2010.

This position shall not be filled during 2009-2010. However, when funds become available to hire, only classified employees who hold positions in Admissions and Records on the main campus shall be eligible to apply for this one new position, a promotional opportunity.
Evaluation Technician:

This classification shall be adopted and established at range 24 of the classified salary schedule. This classification shall provide technical and complex analytical duties involved in the admissions, registration, records maintenance, transcripts, residency, registration records, instructor records, cashiering, and other major functions of the Admissions and Records Office, including prerequisite clearances and challenges, transcript evaluation, and course-to-course evaluation.

Two employees who currently hold positions as Admissions and Records Technicians, Jutta West and Roberta Ruiz-Camacho, shall be reclassified to Evaluation Technician, range 24, step E. This reclassification shall be effective retroactively to February 1, 2009 as a result of a properly filed reclassification application, investigation, and negotiations between CSEA and the District. Retroactive wages due to Ms. West and Ms. Ruiz-Camacho shall be paid no later than February 28, 2010.

CSEA and the District shall meet together no later than June 30, 2010 and then again during May 2011 to review the status of this component and, by mutual agreement, to adjust staffing as necessary.
