

LAW, PUBLIC POLICY AND SOCIETY (AAT.LAW)

ASSOCIATE IN ARTS FOR TRANSFER

Program Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this program a student will be able to:

- recognize the relationship among race, racism, imperialism, white supremacy, colonialism, and the U.S. legal system.
- evaluate the relationship between the U.S. Constitution and the institution of slavery.
- examine the role the legal system has played in the construction of race.
- illustrate how economics, philosophy, logic, education, ethnology, anthropology, politics, sociology, history, and culture molds U.S. law and legal reasoning.
- apply analytic and conceptual tools to critically assess numerous practice areas of law, including, but not limited to the following: civil rights, criminal defense, immigration, education, and human rights. Furthermore, students will be able to demonstrate how these particular areas have historically informed and shaped their local communities.
- demonstrate a systematic understanding of the racial and legal history of people of color in the United States, including, but not limited to analyzing the following issues: naturalization and citizenship, cultural stereotypes and hate speech, history of slavery in America, the workplace and farm labor, land grants, treaty and policy making, and the hyper-masculinity and criminalization of Black and Brown males.
