

CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT and ARCHITECTURE

PROGRAM

- Associate of Science (A.S.)

HARTNELL COLLEGE

DESCRIPTION

The Associate of Science Degree in Construction Management and Architecture provides a comprehensive introduction to the construction management profession and professional architectural studies. Students select an Associate of Science Degree emphasis in either Construction Management or Architecture, which share interdisciplinary core courses. Licensed professionals instruct students in principles of sustainability, fundamental construction field skills and methods, construction management principles, and architectural design theory. Under practical field and professional studio conditions, students apply current leading industry construction techniques, and computer-aided design and management technologies.

Construction Management Emphasis:

The Construction Management emphasis provides the basic practical construction skills and advanced technical knowledge necessary to enter directly into a professional construction management career. Licensed contractors instruct students in lecture, field practice, and studio settings.

Architecture Emphasis:

The Architecture emphasis provides a basic practical knowledge of field construction skills and practices, sustainable building design principles, together with the basic visual communication skills and digital computer drawing skills necessary for entry-level architectural drafting employment and first-year architectural design transfer credits for a university architectural program.

LEADS TO CAREER OPPORTUNITIES SUCH AS:

- Auditor
- Certification Manager
- Commissioner
- Construction Manager
- Green Building Designer
- Inspector
- Sustainable Building Designer

TRANSFER PREPARATION

Courses that fulfill major requirements for an associate degree may differ from those needed to prepare for transfer. Students who plan to transfer to a four-year college or university should schedule an appointment with a Hartnell College counselor to develop a student education plan before beginning their program.
