BENEFITS & APPLICANT INFO

CONTRA COSTA COUNTY

Contra Costa County was incorporated in 1850 as one of the original 27 counties of the State of California. It is one of nine counties in the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Area and covers approximately 733 square miles. The County has one of the State's most heterogeneous populations, rich in ethnic, cultural and socioeconomic diversity. With a current population slightly in excess of 1,000,000, Contra Costa County is the ninth most populous county in California. The City of Martinez is the County seat of Contra Costa County and the location of the County's administrative offices.

Contra Costa County includes varied urban, suburban, industrial, agricultural and port areas and contains 19 incorporated cities. A large part of the County is served by the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District (BART) which has helped to enable significant residential and commercial development. Prestigious public and private academic institutions, including Stanford University, University of California at Berkeley, University of San Francisco, University of the Pacific, and various California State University campuses, are within driving distance from the County seat of Martinez.

Contra Costa County employs more than 9,000 individuals and provides a full range of services through 25 County Departments divided into service areas such as: Public Protection, General Government, Health and Human Services, Growth Management, Special Districts and Authorities. Our employees are what make Contra Costa County a great place to work and we invite your interest in joining our team!
