

Boronda International Study Program

HARTNELL COLLEGE

Florence & Rome, Italy
Summer 2022

The Sylvano and Maria Boronda International Study Program is offering an approximately two-week program of study in Florence & Rome, Italy in the Summer of 2022. As directed by the will of the donor, Lester D. Boronda, the recipients are to be “Students of Unusual Promise in the Arts, namely, Painting, Sculpture, Architecture, Literature, Drama, Music or Dance.”

Students who are selected for the program will study and travel under the direction of a Hartnell Community College instructor. As part of the program, they will receive expenses for air and ground transportation, lodging, and a meal allowance. In addition, accident insurance will also be covered for the duration. Due to global COVID-19 protocols, the trip may be rescheduled to domestic, United States destinations in the event travel to Italy becomes prohibited.

The Boronda Scholarship is open to all student residents of Monterey County that have “Unusual Promise in the Arts.” To apply, please complete the following application.
